"A dark and dazdling debut!" - Derek Farrell, author of The Danny Bird Mysteries

Heavily pregnant Frannie is facing a crisis. An English woman living in Germany, her marriage is failing, her language skills are hopeless, and she feels like a fish-out-of-water in a foreign country.

In a positive effort to tackle her problems she learns to drive so she can cope when her baby is born and build a sense of independence. After passing her test she takes her car out in the early hours of the morning to gain experience on the eerily empty streets.

But a chance encounter with a Polish motorcyclist looking for his missing sister sucks Frannie into a terrifying world of shady nightclubs, autobahn prostitutes and organ trafficking.

And when she crosses serial-killing truck driver Stigelegger, there's no turning back...

A most unlikely heroine, this nervous Night Driver must stay one step ahead of her pursuer on the darkest of roads in order to survive.
